

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Acting Director,
Office of External Affairs

13 January 1983

NOTE FOR: Chairman, National Intelligence Council

Harry,

It has long been Agency policy for a member of External Affairs to sit in on discussions between Agency officials and media representatives. This arrangement serves to help ensure ground rules are followed, to provide a second set of ears should the discussions be distorted later, and to serve as a buffer for follow-up questions from the media person.

We will, of course, be glad to sit in with you in the future when you have discussions such as the case attached.

Thanks,
